

USA Hockey Coach Developer/CIC -Job Description

Benefits:

- Opportunity to share your hockey experience & knowledge
- Opportunity to meet, educate, mentor youth hockey coaches
- Opportunity to be part of a Minnesota Team of coach developers/hockey educators
- Paid stipend from USA Hockey

Suggested Qualifications:

- Experience coaching multiple sports.
- Played high school, collegiate or professional sports.
- Teaching/training experience or strong interest in teaching/training.
- Have attended multiple coaching clinics as a participant or observer.
- Safe Sport & background check certified.
- Excellent facilitation, listening, communication, & time management skills.
- Empathy for the mission of training coaches, building relationships & building coaches confidence.
- Your own laptop, Microsoft PowerPoint software, smartphone, email account & internet access required.
- Technical experience, working with PowerPoint and Zoom (or willing to learn).

Expectations:

- Attend a USA Hockey Coach Developer Academy
- Be available to participate in 1-3 clinics per month between August - December
- Able to deliver a minimum of a single one-hour topic per seven-hour clinic virtually via zoom.
- Able to deliver topics at in-person clinics in your area.
- Willingness to continue to learn, and work in a team setting.
- Participate in all mandatory Coach Developer continuing education.
- Must be reliable!